

FALL 2020

MEDIA CONTACT:

Grace Hong
Newport Beach & Company
E: grace@newportbeachandco.com

WHAT'S NEW IN NEWPORT BEACH, CALIFORNIA

What's new in shopping, dining, destination development and entertainment

DINING

Newport Beach Expanded Patio Dining

Indoor dining at restaurants has resumed at limited capacities, but over 100+ Newport Beach restaurants have outdoor patios and dining spaces. Dozens of establishments have creatively expanded into newly-constructed open-air spaces for al fresco dining at its best!

<https://www.visitnewportbeach.com/covid19/extended-outdoor-dining/>

Newport Beach Wine & Food Festival Reimagined

Due to the coronavirus pandemic, the 7th Annual Newport Beach Wine & Food Festival is hosting both virtual and CDC regulation approved private events between October 8th-11th. Visit their website for more information: <https://www.newportwineandfood.com/>

DESTINATION HAPPENINGS

Newport Beach 112th Christmas Boat Parade: Live!

Newport Beach is your Southern California holiday headquarters for all things merry and bright and our iconic Christmas Boat Parade is back for its 112th year! New this year, stream the Christmas Boat Parade live from the comfort of your home between December 16th-20th.

<https://www.christmasboatparade.com/>

SHOPPING

Roger's Gardens Halloween Boutique: A Pirate's Life for Me

From now through Halloween, take a wild adventure out to sea and enter into the World of Pirates at Roger's Gardens. Discover pirate themed treasures, surprises and frights to decorate your home for Halloween. <https://visit.rogersgardens.com/halloween-boutique/>

Minnow Swim Moves to Lido Marina Village

Fun and fashionable children's swimwear brand, Minnow Swim, is moving their storefront from Balboa Island to Lido Marina Village. Find colorful and playful pieces that are all locally made later this fall. <https://minnowswim.com/>

Stoney Clover Lane's First West Coast Location Coming to Lido Marina Village

Joining the roster of trendy boutiques at Lido Marina Village, Stoney Clover Lane will open their first West Coast storefront at Lido Marina Village. The brand is known for their preppy, customizable accessories, travel pieces and more. <https://www.stoneycloverlane.com/>

Blue Nile Set to Open First California Location at Fashion Island

Blue Nile will open their first California showroom later this fall at Fashion Island. The brand offers engagement rings, wedding rings and fine jewelry by providing in-depth educational materials that place consumers in control of the jewelry shopping process.

<https://www.bluenile.com/>

Italian Brand Peserico to Land at Fashion Island

Luxury, craftsmanship and Italian tailoring is combined into the design of Peserico. Coming soon this season to Fashion Island, the brand showcases luxe fabrics and classic silhouettes for the contemporary fashionista. <https://www.peserico.it/en>

Streetwear Brand Launching Soon at Fashion Island

Premium streetwear brand, The Celect, will open doors this fall at Fashion Island offering modern-day inspired products that combine minimalism and utility. The brand was founded in Southern California in 2013 by husband and wife team Carrie and Murphy Martines.

<https://thecelect.com/>